Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

The frame house is a two-story, five-bay by two-bay house with a sheet metal covering. The main facade has a full-length, one-story porch with a hipped roof on boxed posts. The notable feature of the house is the two entrances in the central bays of the first story, a feature occasionally found on structures in this area. The property appears to have been constructed in the late 19th century.

The house is located on the east side of Rt. 65, .25 mile south of Lappans Road. It is located in a cluster of late 19th century buildings in the Village of Lappans. The main facade faces west.

The main facade is marked by the double entranceway and tall two-over-two pane windows on the first story. The second story has shorter two-over-two windows with shutters. The house is covered in a wood siding painted white. There are black shutters on all the windows of the first and second stories. In the attic of the gable ends are small four-pane windows. The doorways to the house have transoms and large pane glass windows in the doors. On the roof are ornamental interior-end chimneys.

The property has a square summer kitchen sitting behind it. The building is constructed of frame covered in wood siding.
